Dear Mr. Weisberg

I visited the office of "Insight on the News" again, today. I was able to get 4 copies of the magazine, but this time they charged me for them. We are sending them out to you. Penabaz was there. I heard him, but did not see him.

If you would like to have further issues of the magazine, I will buy them when they come out on the newsstand. I prefer not to go back to the office.

I hope these magazines will be helpful to you.

Sincerely,
Karen Goldberg
